Wilson, which arrived on Monday night, June 2nch, about forty days from Victoria. British Columbia, is now anchored in the Rotten Row. The sloop fless the British flag. From what could be learned, she left Victoria forty days ago on a "sealing cruise" in the Arctic Ocean, but by strange atmospheric changes, known only to the captain and crew, she was driven to our shores and bravely entered Honolulu harbor in an "Annie Harley" fieshion, thus excelling the Halcyon. It is said that an old Honolulu "kamaaina" is among the crew. Like the "Annie Harley" (now the "Ka Hae Hawaii"), the Tibballs comes in distress, having lost a boat and probably ber "sealing outfit." Honolulu must be the safest harbor west of the United States. the fact that "vessels in distress" prefer Honolulu to places two thousand miles nearer goes to prove this assertion. Graham. 2 children and nurse. Waldemar, Antone Rose, Frank Shinds, Mrs K Dewhirst, G W Morrison, Tibballs is thought by some to be too small to be of any use in the "banana trade," but lions" in the sealing trade with Honolulu as a market for her catch.
